Dear Bob,
It's been wonderful knowing you and having you in two of my classes. I'm sorry that you're graduating this year because you're really a sweet company. Come around and see us next year. I want to wish you all the luck in the world. You're a terrific guy.
because you're a terrific guy.
Good luck always & always Love
Joel

Bob,
It's almost time for the parting of many wonderful friends. People live known for many years. I wish to say that though our paths may grow far apart I hope they will meet as often as possible. All the luck in the world to a wonderful guy.
Your friend always,
Carl Smith

Dear Bob,
I hope you're going to have a wonderful year. You're a wonderful guy and I hope you'll always be a great friend.
Love,
Joel

Bob -
We've been good friends ever since grade school. You'll always be a great guy. Lots of luck and
love.
Phil Brown.

Dear Bob
I am glad that you were one of the seniors that I met and got acquainted with. You're a swell guy and a good example of friendship between approachable men and lowerclass men.
Lots of luck
your friend always Joel

Dear Bob,
 This may sound
 like just the same old thing but it does seem like a few weeks ago that we were playing softball together and having our little live affair. but now you're graduating and I probably won't see you for a long time. I hope you don't forget me. I hope everything turns out between you and Pat because she is wonderful girl and you should be very proud of her.
 Sincerely,
 Virginia Olsen

Dear Bob,
 Well, here you are graduating and I must say I really you will miss you. In fact I really think you're swell. I'm wishing you all the luck in the world
 with Pat and all.
 "Best of everything"
 Pat O'Brien

Dear Bob, even a lot of fun having you in our English class. Without you and Harold I don't know what we would have done.
 Loads of luck to you in the future.
 Love Benson

Dear Bob: It's
 certainly been great knowing you. My only regret is that I haven't met you sooner. I know you'll be a success at anything.
 Love Har

Dear Bobby, kid, almost it seems like we were graduating time and we sure doesn't seem like we have known each other since grade school. Your friendship has meant a world to me and I really think you may be a terrific guy. May you have much success in the future because you deserve who best -
 Best of luck
 Joanne
 Slater
 (I'll whe... huh!)

Dear Bob,
 Best of luck always
 in whatever you do,
 Pat Musley

Dear Bob.
I really have enjoyed knowing
you these past 5 years.
You have a marvelous personality and always will have a lot of friends. The boy always remember you as the boy with the red hat pulled over his eyes walking down the street in the pouring rain. I have lots of fun after graduation even though it seems funny that you are. Luck and success always to you and Pat. You make a real good couple.
Your friend
Sally Yametgana

Dear Bob,
Here's to a fellow sufferer
in this history class. It really wasn't too bad, tho'
even you in the class tho'
Here's hoping you attain your highest goals Bob.
Soads of luck and success. Blanchard

Dear Bob,

To start with Bobby, you are tops. Pat couldn't have a sweeter husband. There are a lot of kays in our senior class both grad and bad but you are a wonder boy. We have had a lot of fun in all our class in all our four years. Don't ever change, and you'll have the world at your feet. Good Luck with Pat.
You were so sweet when Jim first left and I love you for it. Be good.

Margie Stencus

Dear Bob,
 I really think you are a terrific person. I hope you and Pat will have a wonderful summer
 and that all your plans work out. Good luck always.

 LUCK, K

Dear Bob:
 Its really been fun
 especially in typing.
 You've really got what it takes and I hope to see you
 even though we are graduating.
 Best of luck to
 a neat guy.
 your friend
 and buddy

Hear Bob,
 I think you're
 one of the most perfect
 boys in the whole Senior class.
 Pat's really a very lucky girl.
 Lots of luck!

Dedicated to . . . THE City of ROSES

To Portland, Oregon, the city that lives in a mythical kingdom of roses for one week in June of each year, we proudly dedicate this publication. The rose, which is a symbol of love, typifies the spirit of every Portlander all year round and especially during the week that we pay special tribute to it. Like a rose growing within a fertile garden, Portland lies nestled in a valley surrounded by towering mountains, crystal clear lakes and rushing rivers. We are very proud to live in this city and to dedicate our yearbook to it.

MR. WINDNAGLE

It was with the deepest regret that the students and faculty of Washington High School had to say goodbye to Vere Windnagle, vice principal, near the end of the first term of school this year. Although we are saddened by his departure, we look with pride upon his advancement as coordinator of school buildings and equipment with the Portland public schools.

A member of the 1912 graduating class of Washington High School, Mr. Windnagle compiled an enviable record both academically and in athletics.

We wish to express our sincere best wishes for every success to our ex-vice principal in his new position.

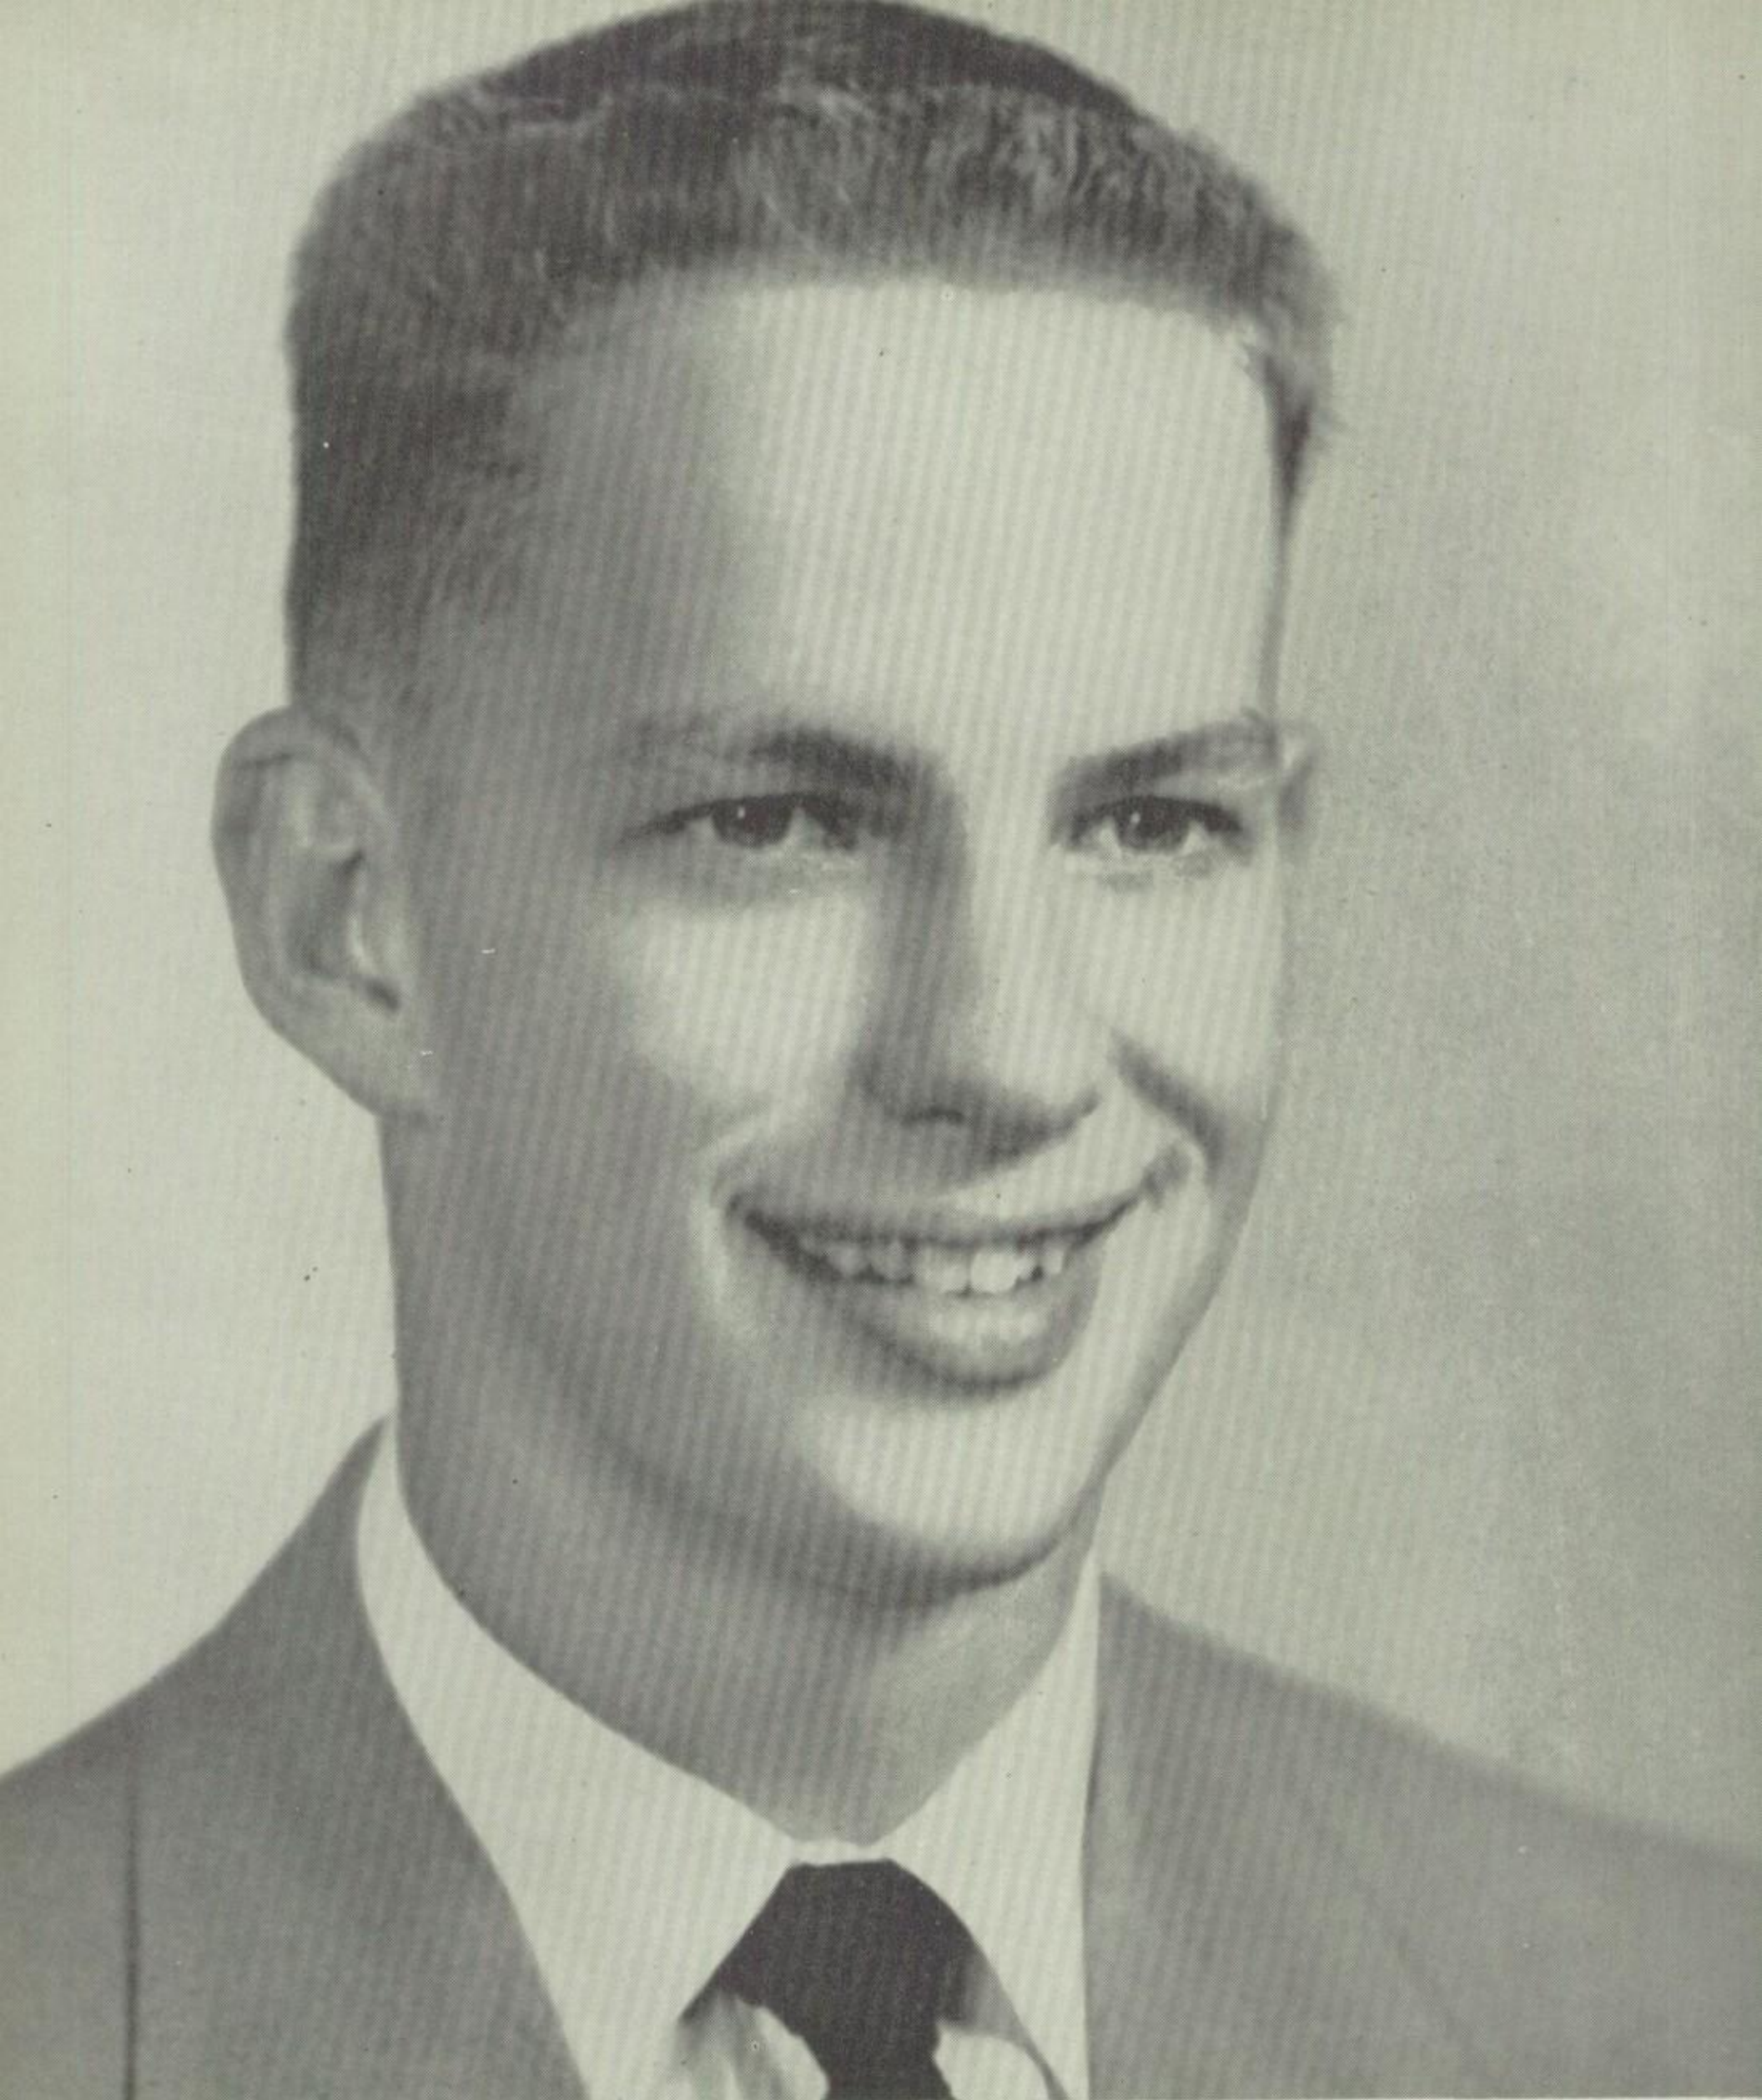

A hand-drawn illustration in black ink on a light background. On the left, a large, rolled-up diploma is shown, with the word "DIPLOMA" written on it. The diploma is tied with a ribbon and has a small starburst or seal on the right side. To the right of the diploma, two figures in graduation gowns and caps stand side-by-side, facing right. The entire scene is framed by a decorative border at the bottom, featuring stylized leaves and a wavy line. In the top left corner, there is some faint, handwritten text in blue ink that appears to say "my diploma".

Dear Bob.

It's been swell knowing the past years. Best of luck and a successful future
Love

Dear Bob, you have
I hope a successful
a happy & successful life. You are around fun to be around.
always keep up & life is friendly ways + life is your. A warm
a little more.

Seniors

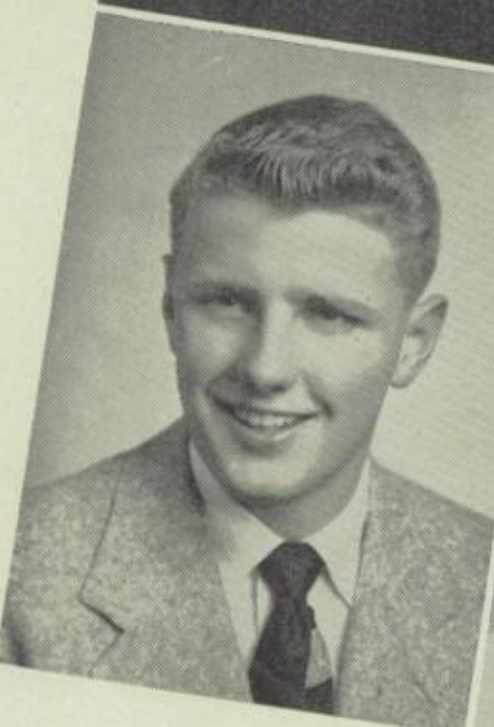

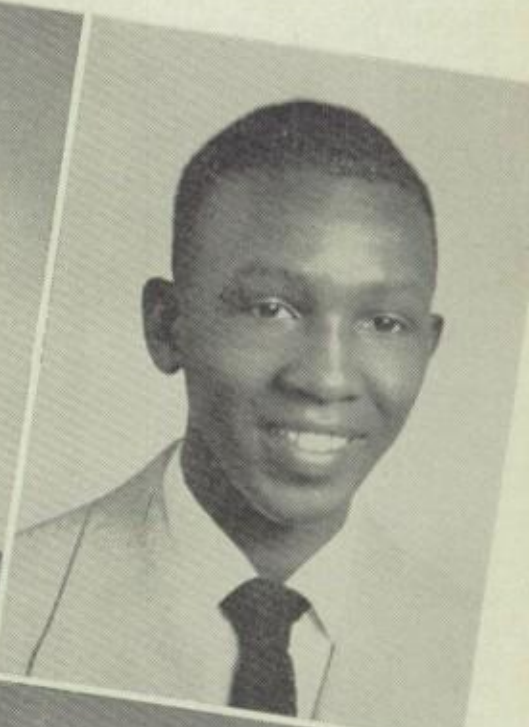

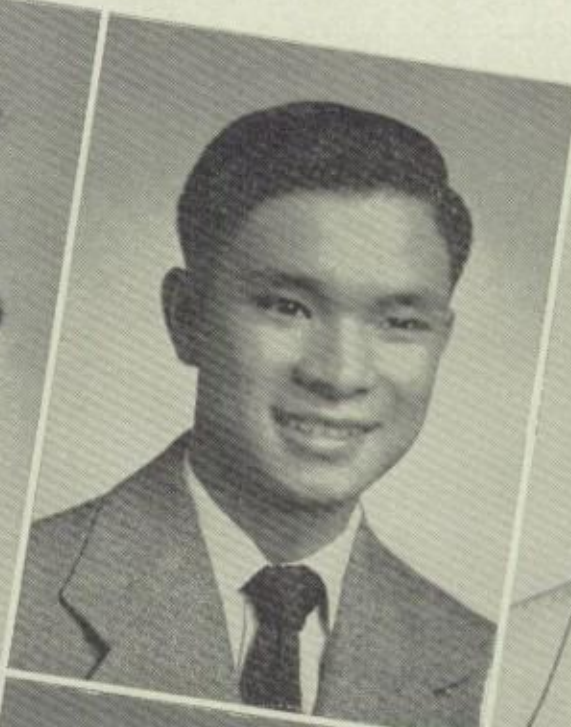

Graduation from high school marks the beginning of a new era for us. The large step we are now taking, has been made possible by the excellent facilities we have shared at Washington.

The practical experience we have acquired is something which we all realize is priceless. It would be very difficult to thank any one group or any one person for the valuable assistance that has been given to us; but without the guidance and co-operation of the administration, the leadership and assistance of the faculty, and the outstanding spirit of the student body, we would not have achieved the goal which we set.

SENIOR CLASS ADVISERS

Dear Mrs. Finnigan and Mr. Fuller,

We would like to thank you for the help and moral support you have given us these last four years. Without your guidance we would not have been successful in making many important decisions regarding our future. You have been very generous in devoting a great deal of your time to the solving of our problems. We could always rely on you to stand by our side through all the ups and downs, and at this time we sincerely want to thank you for being such wonderful counselors.

HONOR AWARDS

ACTIVITY CUP—The activity cup is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a graduating senior. It symbolizes outstanding qualities of responsibility, scholarship, and leadership both in school and in extracurricular activities. This year the four students who received the honor were JO ANN HARRIS, GLENN LEE, ANN EBERLE, and RICHARD COSTI.

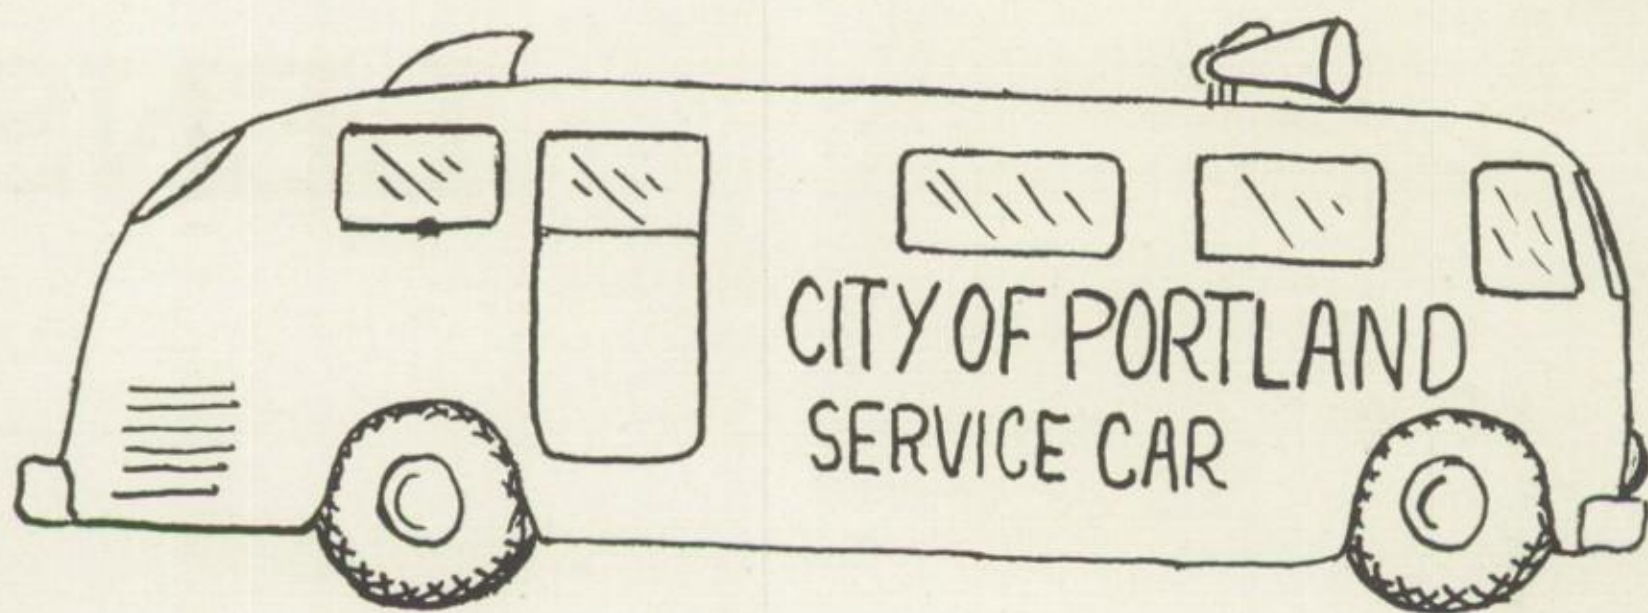

DRAMATICS CUP—Upon the death of John Alden, a talented dramatic student in May of 1942, the class of that year presented a dramatics award to the school to be given annually to two members of the graduating class who were outstanding in the field of drama. The two members of the 1953 graduating class receiving the award were ADALENE OLDEN and DAN GOLD.

ATHLETIC CUP—The six outstanding athletes during the past year at Washington who received the athletic cup are ED DAVIS and KEN PIERCE, football; RICHARD COSTI, basketball; DE MAR BATCHELOR, baseball; and LARRY SINCLAIR and CHARLES WILBUR, track.

SCHOLARSHIP CUP—The two graduating seniors of the 1953 class who were recipients of the honorable Wilbur K. Hood trophy were GLENN LEE and ELEANOR ELSSNER.

MUSIC CUP—JO ANN LE MAR and PAUL MOSHER received the music cup for exceptional work in the field of music.

JOURNALISM CUP—SUE SCHWIND received the journalism cup.

GIRLS'

Fall

This Fall the Girls' League had a very successful term with Jo Ann Harris as presiding officer. Girls' League week was the highlight, as usual with exciting events every day. "Jungle Magic," was the theme of the show which consisted of many eerie and mysterious acts. Reigning over the week was Wanda Davis, senior.

The Girls' League Council would like to extend its appreciation to its adviser, Miss Hazel Ohmert, who has been very helpful and co-operative.

LEAGUE

Spring

Under the leadership of Lolita Mar, president, and Miss Hazel Ohmert, adviser, the Spring Girls' League has completed a very active term. Among the many activities were a card sale, at which the girls beat the boys, a lei sale, during Girls' League week, the annual open house in 210, and the show, "Tropicalmania." Chantel de St. Pierre, Washington's senior exchange student from Paris, was crowned queen to highlight the week.

The council would like to thank the faculty and all the students for their co-operation and help.

The outstanding feature of the Fall term of Boys' League was the show, "The Wild and Woolly West." It was a very colorful and hilarious show.

Under the capable leadership of Hufty Covert, President, and Mr. Tuttle, Adviser, Boys' League had a successful and profitable term.

LEAGUE

Spring

Under the leadership of Benny Lee and Mr. Tuttle, Boys' League has had a successful spring term. The semi-annual show was a jazz ensemble of well known entertainers who were very interesting. Boys' League has also performed many services for the school and we would like to thank them.

STUDENT BODY STORE

STUDENT BODY STORE

Under the direction of Fred Parkes, Washington High math instructor, the student body store was efficiently managed and operated by a student staff.

Well-lighted and spacious, the store enables the co-operative students who work behind the counter to provide better service to the store's student customers.

BOOK ROOM

Again this year, a new face was added to our somewhat new book room, that of Mrs. Francis E. Williamson. Although primarily concerned with the handling and labeling of new books, plus the mending of old ones, the department is also the distribution point for school audio-visual aid equipment.

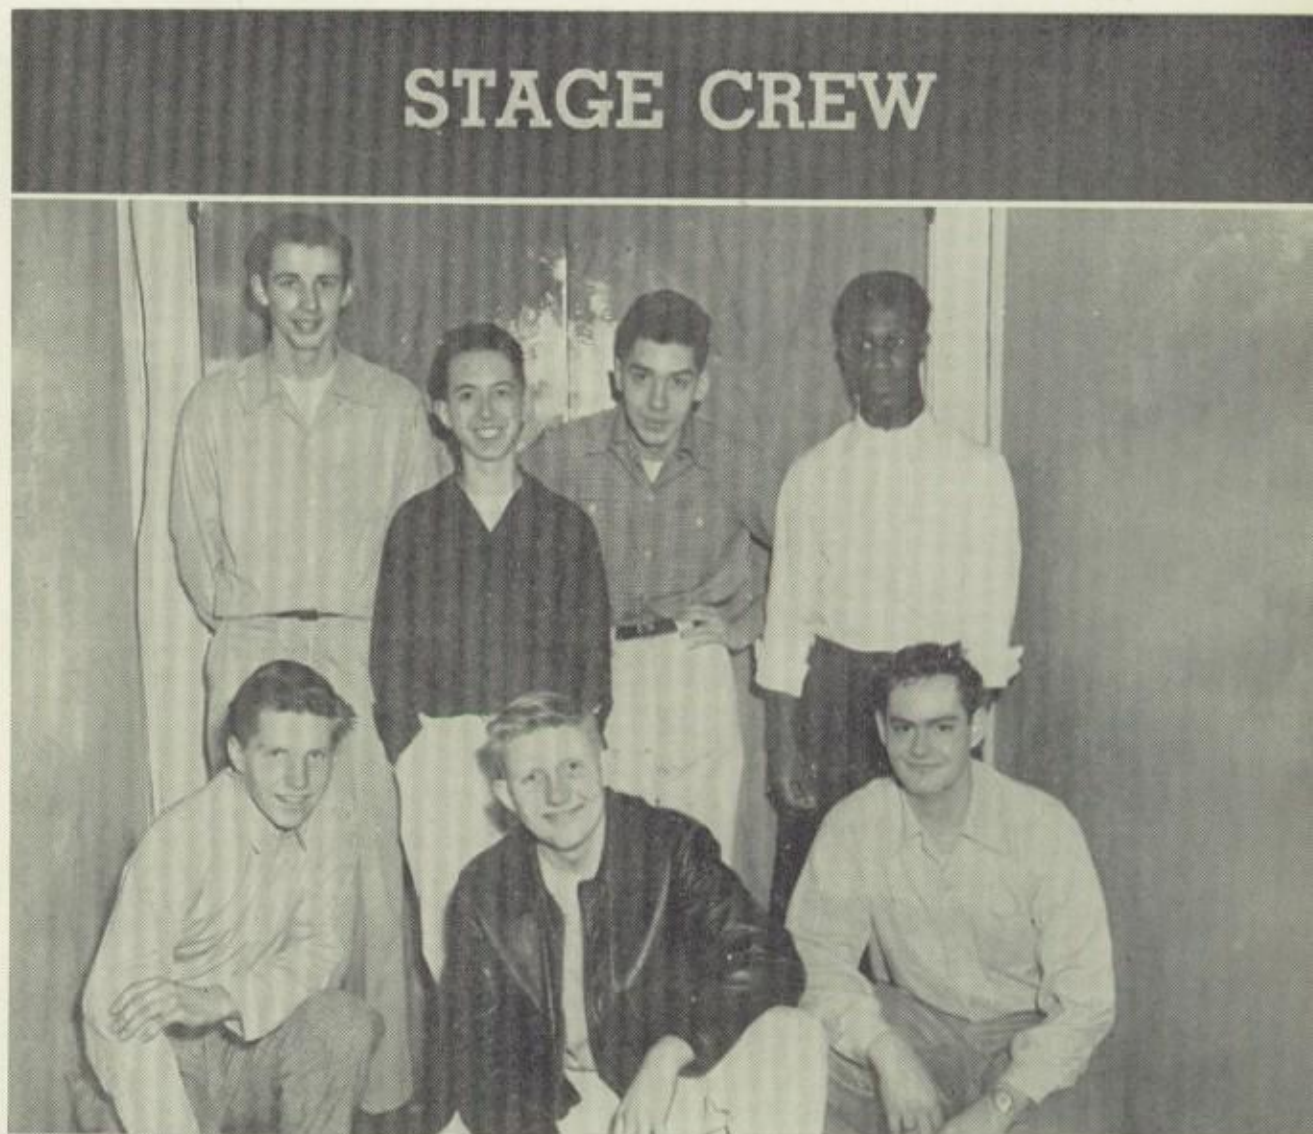

BOOK ROOM

STAGE CREW

Much appreciation must be given to the Washington High School stage crew for the tremendous job they have done in the line of dramatics behind the scenes. They are equally important as the performers themselves, who take it for granted that props will be moved and scenes changed quickly.

Among the many plays which the stage crew helped to make successful were the "May Masque" and the Senior Class Play.

STAGE CREW

FIRE SQUAD

FIRE SQUAD

One of the most important organizations in our school is the Fire Squad. On the members of this depends the security of the student body. They must be alert and ready at all times to calmly evacuate the building swiftly in the event of a fire.

This year ten girls were added to the Fire Squad to contribute to the safety of the school.

Aedeas, the Colonial chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, is an organization full of fun and service for all who are interested in home-making.

At Washington, the members of the club participate in local and national projects which deal with nutrition, home improvement, safety, care of children, and recreation. For instance, at Christmas they dressed dolls for the "Toy and Joy Makers of America," made tray favors for the children at Doernbecher hospital, and went carolling at Providence hospital. Similar activities were carried out during the entire year.

The worthwhile goal of Aedeas is that of "learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow."

Aro is the art club of Washington High School. Its letters embody the three qualifications for membership in the club: interest and ability in art, reliability, and obligingness. Every member of Aro is selected on the basis of these three qualities.

During every year at Washington, Aro members lend a helping hand to those desiring aid in projects concerning art. Many posters that Washingtonians see in the halls each year are those made by members of this club.

Two of the most important projects of Aro this year were the sports board and the Aro ginger bread Santa Claus sale.

The cartoons that come out in nearly every Washingtonian are drawn by an Aro member, Karla Steinhauser. Cartoons in past editions are also Aro products.

BILL GRAY — HEAD' COACH

Washington's inexperienced but rough football squad had a fair season considering only eight lettermen returned. Toiling for the well-liked mentor Bill Gray, the locals struggled through a season that was highlighted by a 12-6 upset over highly rated Benson, who later was a finalist in the state tournament. The Washington squad was constantly plagued by injuries, the result of the overeagerness to win at any cost. Warren Bolin, line coach, developed a line which, when it clicked, proved to be one of the toughest defensive walls in the city.

The Colonials rated for the cellar, got off to a slow start as the Minnville Bruins romped past the locals, 21-7 in a slow preseason game that saw 200 lb. Fred Casey score 15 of the Bruins points.

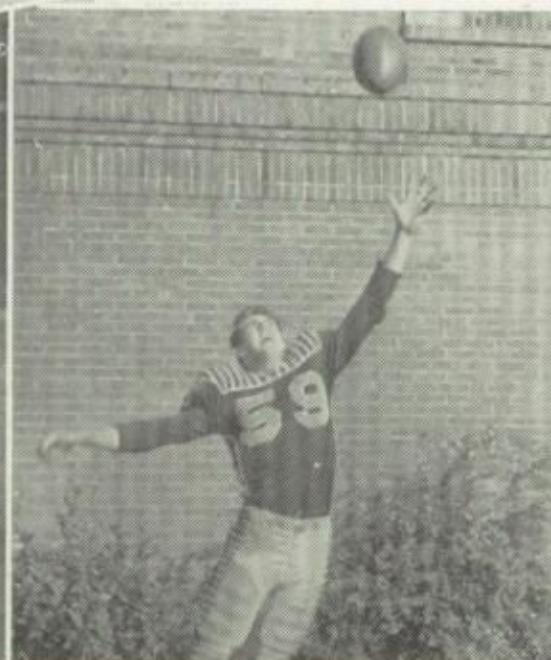

At the Jamboree, much to the teams's delight, (later their plight) the locals were matched against the Generals who powered to a lop-sided 31-0 win. This game was later chalked up as a win for the locals because Grant used an illegal player and was forced to forfeit several games.

In this heartbreaker, the Washington forward wall clicked beautifully stopping dead the league leading Indians. Desperation play by the Cleveland squad in the second half paid off in two touchdowns, the deciding factor.

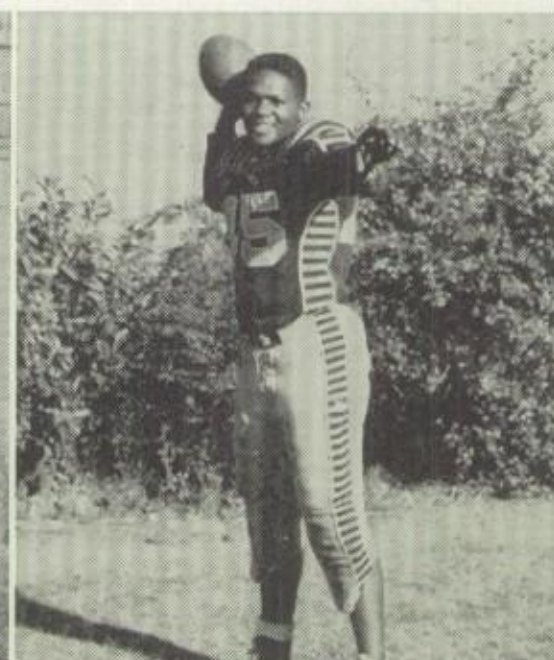

At long last the home aces won a game, and what a game! The underdog Washingtonians, sparked by the brilliant passing attack of Duane Phelps, completely baffled the tremendous Techmen. The teamwork of the Washington clan shone in a game that saw Benson's All City fullback, George Beardsley slowed to practically nothing. The defensive abilities of Dick Wilson were brought to light in this game as he boomed through the big Benson line to block Beardsley's kick. Ken Pierce on the alert, picked up the pigskin and galloped into the end zone for the winning six points. Jimmy Williams tallied the Tech-men's only score when he found one of the few holes in the Colonial line and sprinted to the goal posts.

For the first three quarters the play was dominated by the Quakers as they racked up 26 points to Washington's 0. Finally late in the third chapter and the last quarter, the Colonials clicked and piled up 14 points in about that many minutes for the final count—Franklin 26, Washington 14.

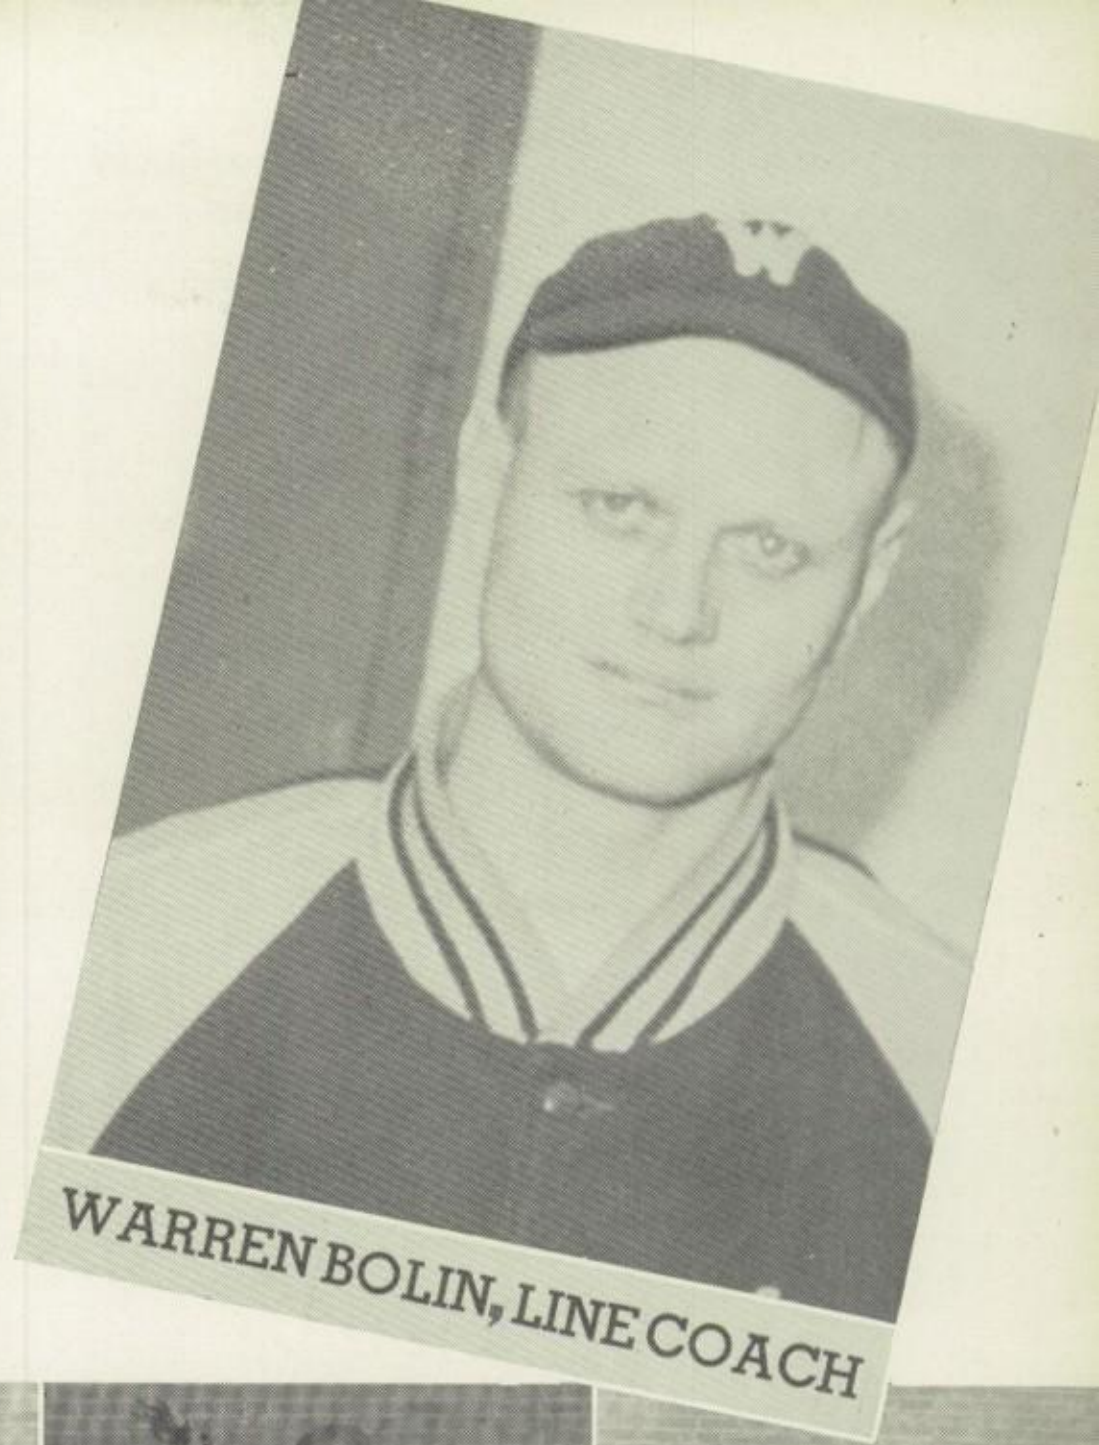

In the next game the home clan tipped the revengeful minded Cardinals 7-0 in a penalty filled contest. The lone touchdown came via a pass which little Sam Nicoletti grabbed. Sam wormed his way through most of the players on both teams and finally to everyone's surprise broke out clear in the stripped zone to score the winning tally.

Jefferson's Demos turned all their power loose on the hapless Colonials, as they roared past the locals 21-0. The only highlight in this game from a Colonial standpoint was the strong Washington defense which several times held when backed up against their own goal line.

In the final game of the season, the locals lost to the Roughriders 25-6 in a rough little contest. Tempers flared to the extent that twice the referees stopped the clock to allow the boys to cool off.

Washington, despite its new turf, played no home games. Also, the Colonial Kids were plagued with injuries which kept star players like Bill Barnes, Ray DeFanti, Dick Wiles, and others out of action much of the time.

Considering all of these handicaps, the Washington squad had a fairly successful season.

BASKETBALL

Head Coach—Bill McClusky

The Colonials, this year, seemed to be a hot-cold team. When the locals were hot, they were unbeatable, and when they were cold, at least we called it cold, they were a mediocre team that just couldn't seem to find their range. It seemed when the going was rough, the home clan got rough breaks. Bill McCluskey's Maroon and Gold hoopsters, however, had the highest scoring offense in the city, averaging 58.36 points per game.

Washington ended on the long end of a "hot 'n cold" preseason circuit, winning five and losing three. The final game saw the Colonials up-end the highly touted Vancouver Trappers, 62-60. The Trappers had previously trampled Cleveland and Central Catholic.

The Colonials got off to a slow start in regular season play, dropping the first tilt to Cleveland 74-54, on the cold end of the local cagers "hot 'n cold" warfare. In this rough contest, twenty-one trips to the foul line were whistled by the officials in the first quarter alone. In the return match, the local lads gave the champs a real scare, finally, in the last quarter giving in by a 59-57 count.

In the first game with the Rough Riders, Washington was upset by the then underrated Teddies, 63-53 on the Colonial's tight court. The Colonials got their vengeance on the Teds, by humbling the St. John's Kids 69-62, on the latter's spacious maple. This was one of the locals hot games in their, by now famous, "hot 'n cold" play.

After their disheartening starts, the Stark Street Stars came to life and found their range to thump Jefferson 71-62. In the second game of the two-game series, the revengefully minded Democrats smashed Washington 64-46.

The 14th Streeters were surprised by Franklin 51-48. This loss was due mainly to the Colonials' inability to hit from the charity strip. In the second contest, the Washington Wonders, still steaming from the first upset, soundly trounced the Quakers 67-47.

Again breaking into the win column, Washington sneaked by Grant 63-57, on the local court. The return game saw Eli Morgan, who was too tall for anybody to stop, dunk 28 points to pace Grant to a 52-44 victory.

Washington soundly trounced Benson 73-57 as Richie Costi poured 36 points through the hemp, and in so doing, establishing a school record. The second game reached the freezing level of the Colonials "hot 'n cold" competition as Benson swamped the local lads 60-39.

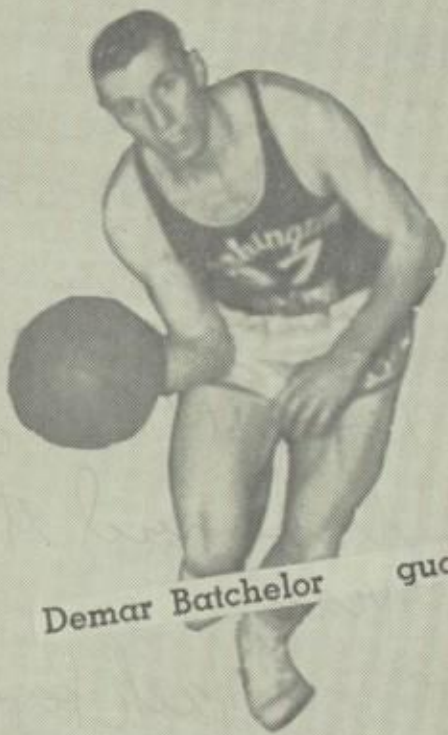

Washington had one very bright spot in the league. This was the double triumph over the Cards. In the first contest the Red Birds gave the Kids a scare but some clutch foul shooting paid off 54-51. The next contest saw the Stark Streeters easily take the Lincoln squad 79-59.

BASEBALL

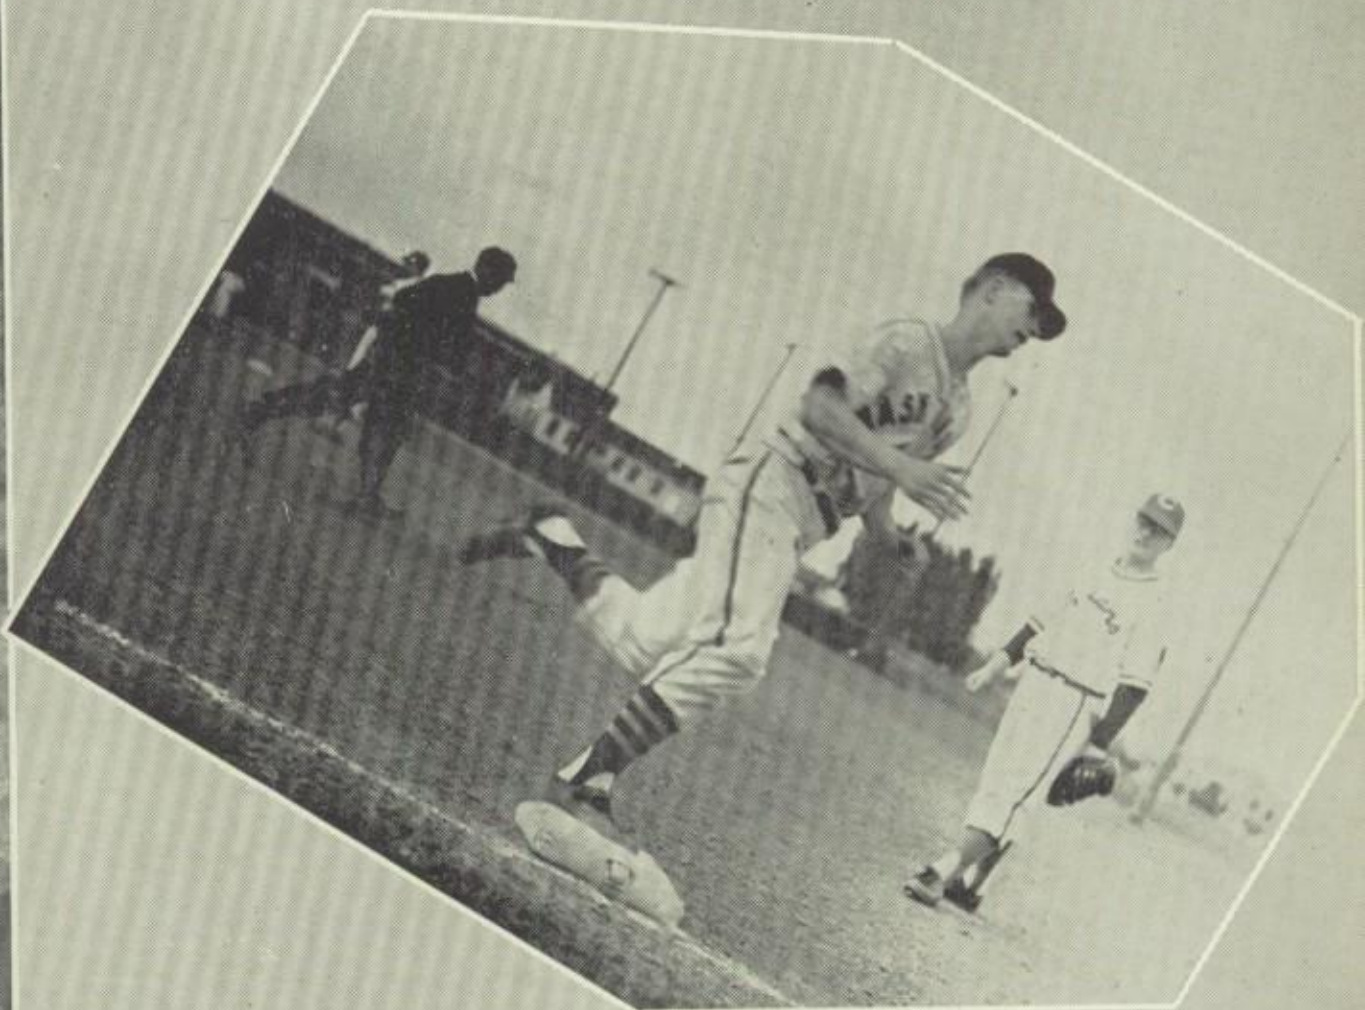

If the Colonial swatters can hit with any consistency, they should be a threat in Portland prep play. There are, however, large gaps left by graduating members of last year's squad. If these holes can be successfully filled, Washington should end up in the first division. Washington has several potential long ball hitters in addition to a strong bench. Considering all of these factors, the Colonials should have a fairly successful season.

Cross Country 1952

There wasn't a varsity cross country track team at Washington this year. The only varsity members who turned out were Arnie Philichi and Mackel Nixon. This was three less than the required minimum of five.

The junior varsity, however, had a better than average season, chalking up one first place and three seconds.

The Washington clan, not considered a threat, came up strong at the city meet to capture second behind the powerful Jefferson team.

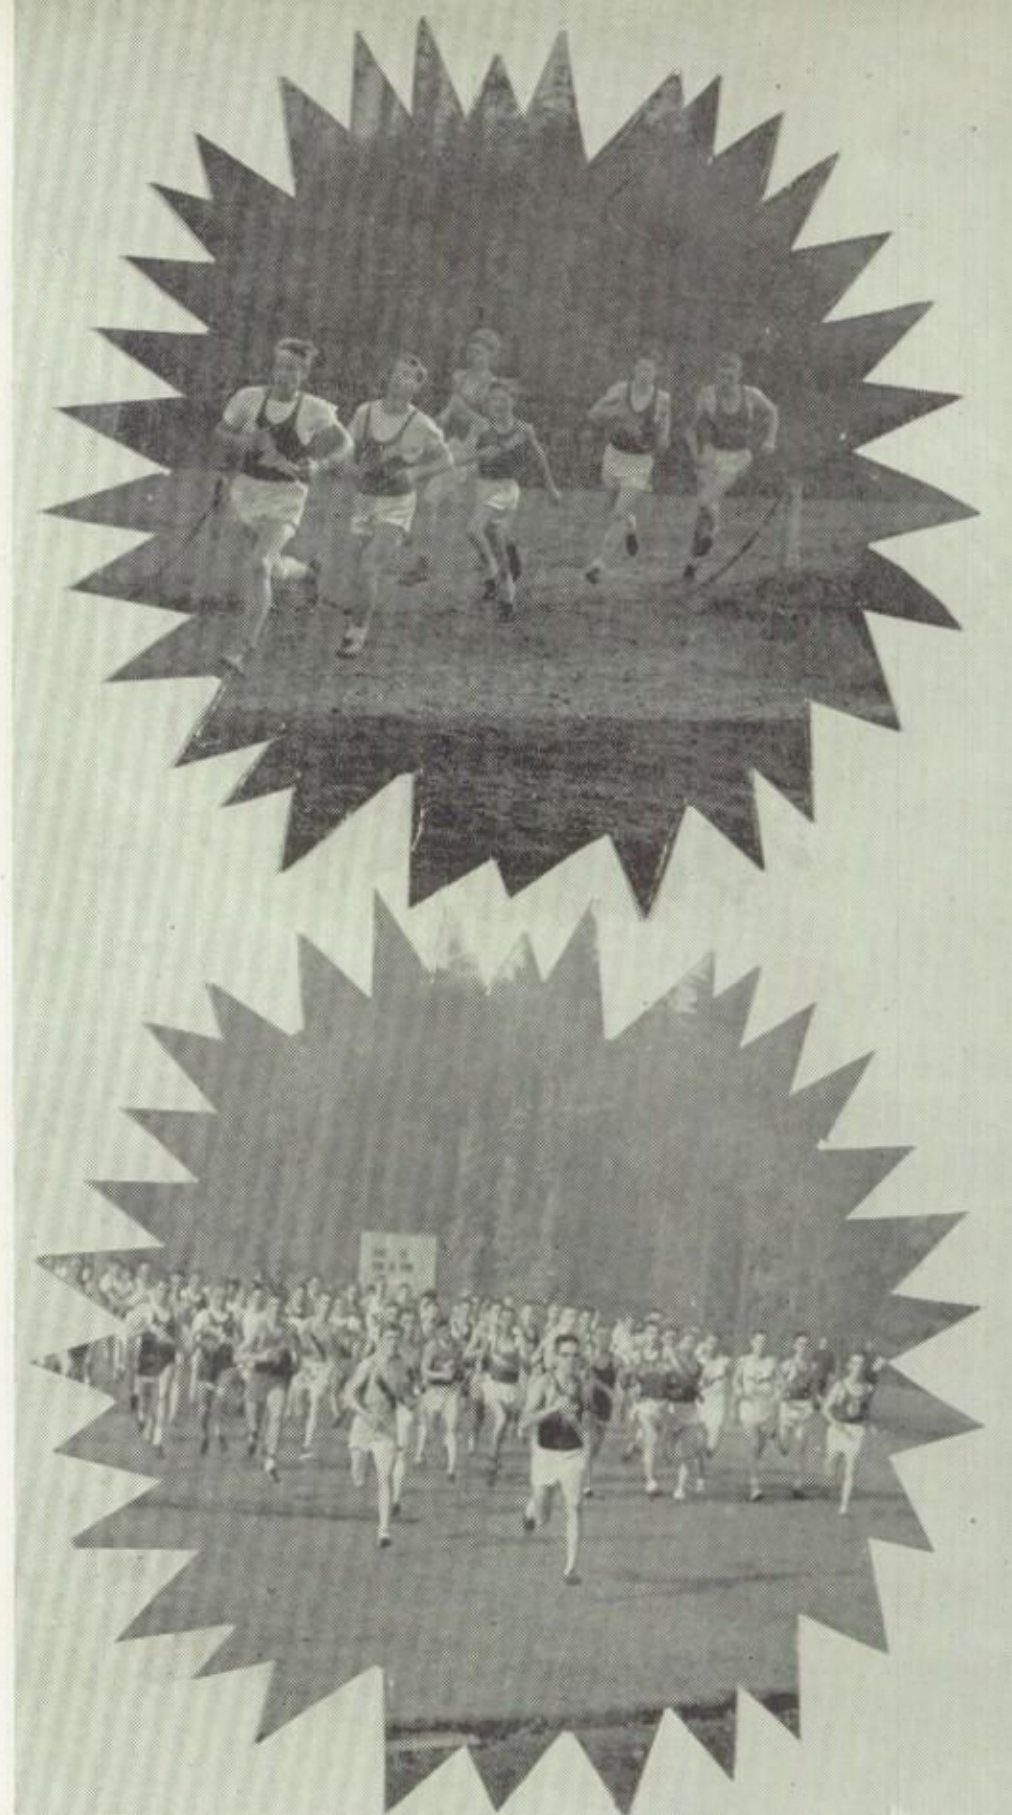

The home squad was led by Bob Brown who garnered two firsts, and in the city meet, a fourth.

Swimming

BOYS—This year, due to Mr. Jame's initiative, many men were inspired by the highly competitive aquatic sport. As a direct result of their tremendous spirit, they ended the campaign with a 3 won, 4 lost, winning the last three via upsets.

GIRLS—An all freshmen girls swimming squad, by steady paddling, stroked their way to a fourth place in the city circuit. If all of these mermaids return next year, Washington should produce some terrific competition in the city league.

This year's rally squads succeeded in re-arousing the long dormant Washington spirit. A thrilling climax came in a late football rally when the Colonial forces held a steady yell for sixteen minutes. Other demonstration signifying a will to win in the students followed during the next lunch in the athletic field. An abundance of rallies both on the stage and on the ramp suggested the tireless effort expended by our leaders Don Ross and Vaughn Castle as well as the entire squads toward backing our teams in the city race.

Through this effort a steady attendance was achieved at the football and basketball games; the local gym was always filled to the capacity crowd. Let's hope that a continuance of rally squad as we had this year will be instrumental for championship teams in the future.

This year Washington was severely handicapped by the small number of men that turned out for the cinder sport. It takes a large squad to make a good track team. Despite this, wher-

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS LEAGUE

The International Relations League of Washington was organized to further greater understanding and friendship with all races and nations.

The club, this year, has participated in many activities, both in and out of school. Since it is affiliated with both city and state groups, a great portion of the club's activities have been meetings with other groups. City council meetings are attended by two designated club members.

At school, the club has sponsored two assemblies: one on UN Day which was a mock meeting of the United Nations Security Council and was broadcast over station KOIN; the other was for all seventh period history classes, and featured a visiting teacher at Reed College, Dr. Edwards, who gave an interesting talk on Australia.

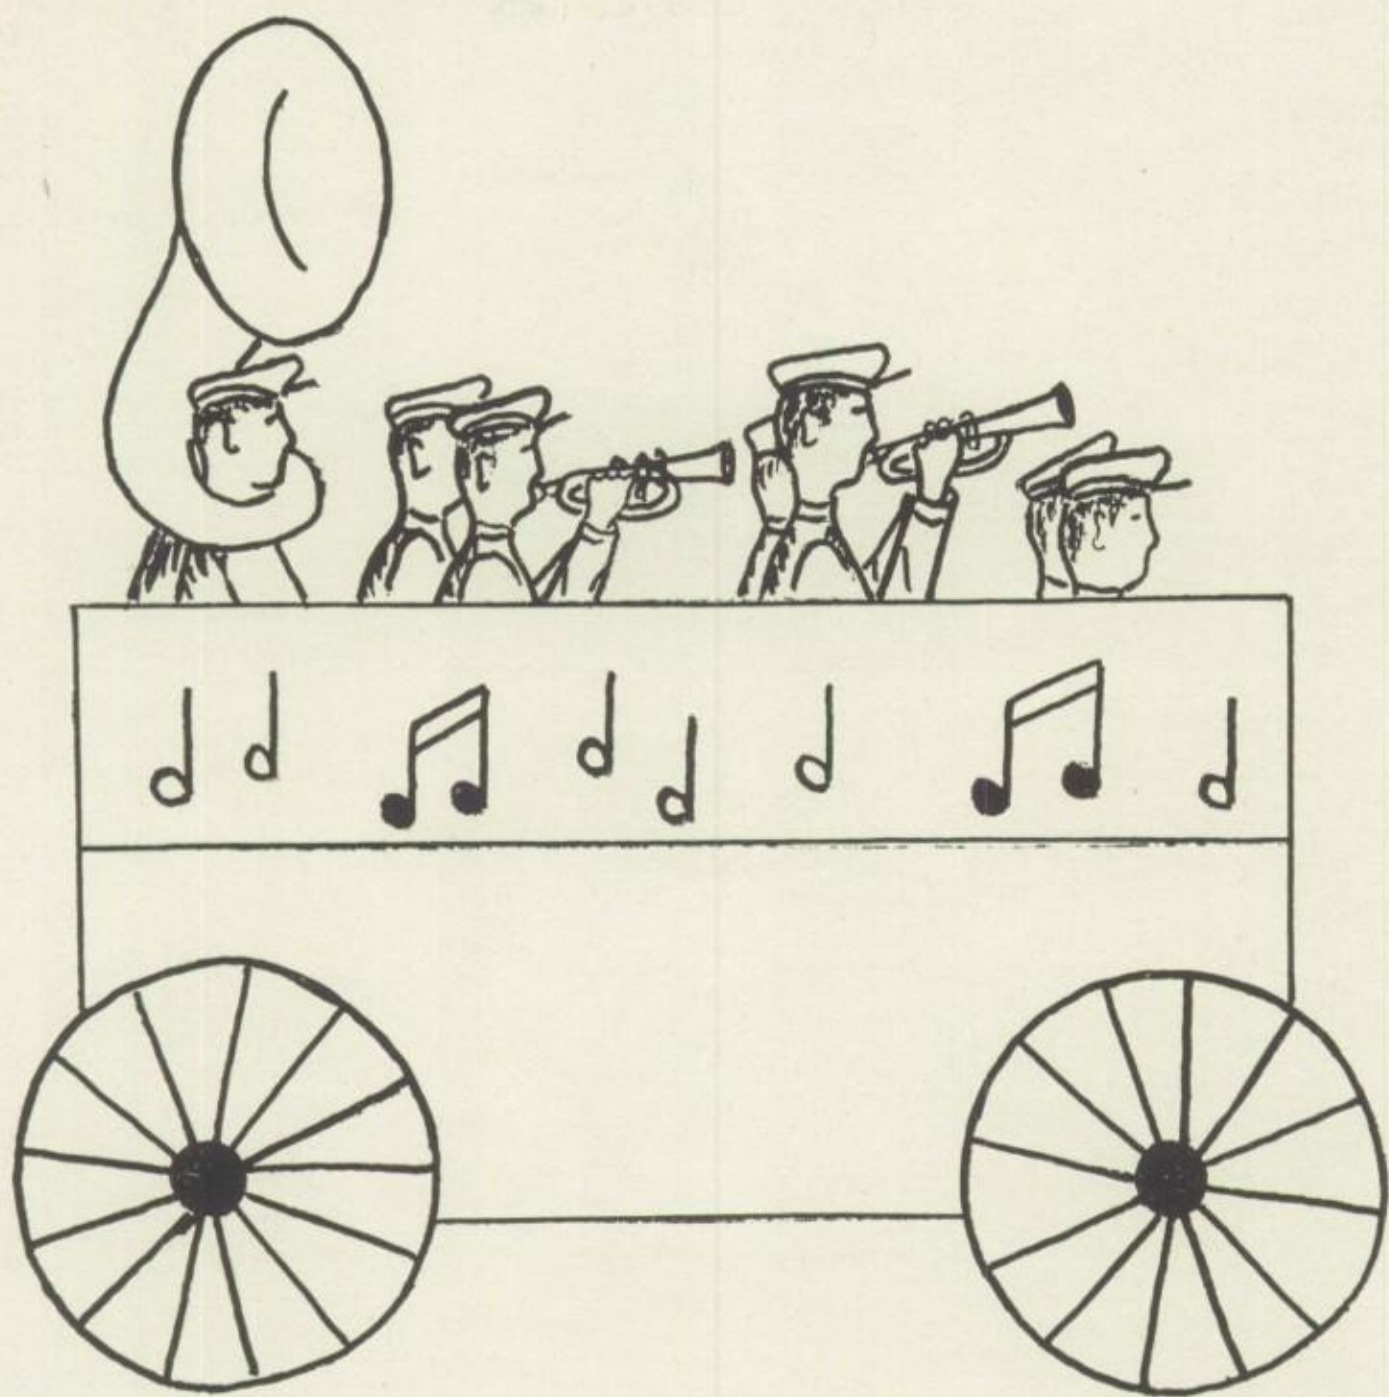

The executive system is some what unusual as it is composed of a board of five members with an alternating chairman. However, all board members are elected to certain jobs. This system is used to divide the work equally among five people rather than directing it to one person.

Administration

To our principal, Mr. Smith, the graduating class of '53 wish to express their deepest thanks for the guidance and understanding he has shown us during our stay at Washington. We shall always hold his timely advice and help in highest esteem. His warm personality and friendly attitude will win for him a place in the hearts of every Washington student, now and in the future.

MISS OHMERT

In every school there must be a person to arrange the curriculum, see that it runs smoothly, and to solve the problems of the students of the school. At Washington High School we are fortunate in having as Dean of Girls, Miss Ohmert, who has always been willing to give freely of her time and advice to help the members of the "Class of 53" to develop individual personalities and a sense of responsibility which will be necessary for all of us in our future life. Therefore, the members of this year's graduating class wish to thank her sincerely for her active interest, her guidance, and her friendliness and cooperation.

MR. BRUNER

In the short time we, the seniors, were privileged to work with you, Mr. Bruner, we found you a very capable and understanding person. The fairness you have shown to us is unusual and very much appreciated. The job you filled this fall is by no means an easy one and we feel that you have executed the office efficiently and sympathetically.

Mrs. Rice

Not only are there "unsung heroes" on the battle fronts, but also in our own school. Our secretaries, Miss Sykes, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Baumann, are three of the hardest working individuals in Washington. Their capability and efficiency is greatly depended upon. They have their general office work to do, but always seem to find time to perform innumerable tasks every day for the members of the faculty and for the students.

Many thanks to all three of you, Miss Sykes, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Baumann, for your cheerful friendliness and help.

De Bob

Well we finally made it through English and History.
I have no work left
and I am so glad that I can have a lot of fun
knowing you. I'm sure you will always have the best with
that wonderful personality of yours. Best of everything to a wonderful friend.

Bob
Best of luck
always to you
and Pat.
P.S. Do you really enjoy your really anything in N.Y. Math?

Dear Bob,
I don't know what I would have done
without you to take me home when I was sick. I hope I see you next year
Love Nancy

Dear Bob -

Without your present
in English it might have proved to be a dull
class. Your book report was quite good, now I don't have to read the book since I know all about it. I think you really a swell guy
and you do have a wonderful personality.
"Best of luck always"

Kay Swanson

Dear Dad,
I think you all
deserve a terrific
time in the world.
I have it.

Sincerely,
Sandra Henderson

Bob-
To a real swell
guy lots of luck
and happiness in the future.
